Santiago Castaneda, 40, of 526 E. Main, turned himself in to police at 3:15 p.m. Thursday.

Castaneda, wanted on two Vermilion County traffic warrants for failure to appear, was released on $300 cash bond.

Juan Torres Jr., 22, of Ambia, Ind., was arrested at 6:19 p.m. Thursday on two Vermilion County traffic warrants for failure to appear.

He was released on $300 cash bond.

Deanna L. Smith, 26, of 701 S. Market, was arrested at 7:54 p.m. Thursday, charged with domestic battery and aggravated battery to a child.

Smith, arrested on a complaint from David Watson, 815 W. Main, was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Tammy L. Uppinghouse, 32, of 723 N. Seventh Street, was arrested at 10:47 p.m. Thursday in the 400 block of North Eighth Ave., charged with driving under the influence of alcohol, alcohol concentration in blood or breath above .10 or higher, operating an uninsured motor vehicle and failure to display valid driver's license.

Police said she was arrested after a motorist reported someone driving erratically.

Uppinghouse was taken to the Public Safety Building.

A large extension cord was found Friday at Euclid and Penn. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

No injuries were reported in an accident at 11:35 a.m. Friday at Route 9 and Fourth Ave.

Police said Page Marie Wallace, 420 W. Chestnut, in a 1967 Chevrolet, was eastbound on Route 9. She stopped at the intersection to allow traffic to go by before turning and was struck in the rear by a 1987 Chevrolet driven by Brooke E. Malchow, 18, of 309 E. Chestnut.

Malchow was at fault for failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

William Orr of Hamilton-Orr Funeral Home, reported Saturday that someone knocked over a tree at the funeral home, 427 E. Main.

The tree is valued at $115.
